ABOUT JERRY

Jerry grew up on a farm near Delburne, and through his parents, was introduced to square dancing at a young age. In 1967 caller Frank Dorward handed a record to Jerry and told him to practice. Jerry learned the singing call and has been calling ever since. He celebrated his 50th year of calling in 2017.

During his career as full-time caller, Jerry and his wife, Janice, have lived in several places in the US, including FortWorth/Dallas area, TX; Yuma, AZ; and West Yellowstone, MT, where they offered various levels of square & round dancing, and clogging.

Jerry has called extensively overseas including places in Australia, Austria, Belgium, Czech Republic, Denmark, England, Finland, France, Germany, Holland, Japan, New Zealand, Norway, Saudi Arabia, Scotland, Sweden and Switzerland. He has also taught caller schools in several of those countries.

Jerry worked for various record label companies, and over the years has recorded many hits. He is well-known for his creative choreography, high-energy presentation, and use of a wide variety of music.
